Roberts Legal Group Ranked by Chambers and Partners for Intellectual Property in Philadelphia

Solo-founded boutique is one of six firms ranked in the Chambers Spotlight Pennsylvania 2027 guide's Philadelphia IP table

PHILADELPHIA (October 27, 2026) | Roberts Legal Group, LLC, an Intellectual Property and business law firm, has been ranked by Chambers and Partners in the Chambers Spotlight Pennsylvania 2027 guide for Intellectual Property: Philadelphia. The firm is one of six ranked in the category, in its first year of ranking.

In its published review, Chambers says the firm “maintains an impressive reputation for its strong work on complex intellectual property matters.” Chambers highlights the team's work across trademark protection, copyright and patent transactions, and IP enforcement and disputes, and names founder Lynn E. Roberts III as the practice's key contact.

Chambers and Partners is an independent legal research organization that ranks law firms and lawyers in more than 180 jurisdictions. Its Spotlight guides recognize leading small and mid-sized firms, those with fewer than 75 attorneys that do not already hold a departmental ranking in the main Chambers USA guide. Firms are selected and assessed by Chambers' research team through attorney interviews, review of representative matters, and confidential feedback from clients and peers.

Roberts Legal Group operates with a lean team, making its inclusion among substantially larger firms notable. The ranking is the first major independent recognition of Roberts' Intellectual Property practice.

“Chambers doesn't hand out rankings. It researches firms, talks to their clients, and decides for itself,” said Roberts. “To be ranked in a guide that evaluates firms of up to 75 attorneys, as a solo-founded practice, tells me our approach is working: sophisticated IP strategy, delivered with the access and attention our clients deserve. This recognition belongs to our clients and our team.”

Work highlighted by Chambers includes the firm's representation of Maurice Watts in a federal trademark infringement action in the Southern District of New York against Amazon and Paramount, concerning use of the “Love Zone” mark in a nationally distributed series.

Roberts Legal Group advises entrepreneurs, innovators, creators, nonprofits, and legacy-minded organizations on trademarks, copyrights, licensing, brand protection, IP transactions, and IP disputes, across industries including technology, entertainment and media, consumer products, fashion, sports, and food and beverage. The firm also offers Counsel on Call, a subscription legal service with Creator, Entrepreneur, Nonprofit, and Corporate/Enterprise divisions.
